

RULES & REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE WORLD WIDE ANTIQUE SHOWS

SPACE ASSIGNMENT

Every effort will be made to comply with requests. Show Management reserves the right to determine booth location. Booth sharing is not permitted unless previously agreed upon by current show management. Exhibitors may not assign their booth or any portion thereof to any other person for any reason.

BOOTH FEES:

A $100 dollar deposit will be required once a contract is issued. The deposit and contract will be due within two weeks of the contract date. If Deposit and Contract are not paid within that time the contract will be voided and space will be reissued. Booth fees are payable in two equal installments. An invoice is mailed in advance of each payment. Exhibitor will not be allowed to occupy any booth not fully paid 30 days prior to the show exhibitor is contracted for. In such case, any show exhibit space money shall be considered a non-refundable deposit.

EXHIBITOR ATTENDEE:

All exhibitor personnel are required to register. Name badges will be issued and must be worn by registered attendees at all show functions. Exhibitors are not allowed to issue unauthorized, complimentary or discounted badges to anyone. If Show Management determines name badges have been issued improperly, a registration fee of $200 per person per day will be assessed and/or the attendee asked to immediately leave the Show, forfeiting all monies previously paid.

FOOD AND BEVERAGE

Exhibitors may not sell or serve foods, beverages or intoxicating liquors.

MERCHANDISE:

- Merchandise must be correctly represented and priced in U.S. dollars and cents.
- Reproductions, items of recent manufacture, new copies of old objects, fakes, counterfeits or objects ordered from a catalogue or wholesale source will not be permitted (including but not limited to Sabino, collector-type plates, etc.)
- Furniture must be accurately dated.
- Only two flat cases of jewelry are permitted per booth unless designated above as a jewelry exhibitor. New jewelry is not permitted.
- Items that have been repaired, altered or restored must be marked accordingly.
- Exhibitors agree to remove from their booth any items that Show Management deems as detrimental to the integrity of the show.
- Refunds must be made to customers in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado.
- Exhibitors will issue a written receipt to customers for all purchases to include the following printed information:
Exhibitor's name, address and telephone number.
- Customers wishing to return items purchased at the show will be given a full refund in accordance with Colorado State Laws.

DISPLAY:

All table covers must come to the floor. Nothing must be placed outside of the booth limits.

MOVE-IN:

Exhibitor agrees to comply with the move-in instructions, hours, etc., which will be sent prior to each show. Move-in help is available for tips. World Wide Antique Shows and its designated management (collectively Show Management) is not responsible for loss or breakage.

MOVE-OUT:

Exhibitor agrees to comply with the move-out instructions which will be available at each show. Move-out help is available for tips. Show Management is not responsible for loss or breakage. Displays must remain intact until the show closes.

CANCELLATION BY EXHIBITOR:

Deposits are NON-Refundable

Any exhibitor wishing to cancel Show-space reservation for reasons of their own may do so in writing without penalty of payment up to and including 60 days prior to the opening of the show. A 50% refund on Show space will be granted up to and including 45 days prior to the Show. Any cancellation on or prior to 46 days will be accepted, but no refund of show-exhibit-space money will be made.

OTHER:

- For security purposes, photographs of booths or merchandise are not permitted without the Exhibitor's and Show Management's permission.
- Exhibitors will be appropriately attired so that their appearance will reflect favorably on the Show. Shorts and sandals are not appropriate apparel.
- An exhibitor should not enter another exhibitor's booth space without obtaining permission. An exhibitor may not enter an unattended booth with or without permission.
- Show badges are to be worn during move-in and for the duration of the Show.
- There is no smoking, open flames or use of flammable products inside the Denver Merchandise Mart Exposition Building. Exhibitor agrees to remove any items or cease any activities which would violate the uniform fire code.
- Signs promoting "Sale", "Special Price", "Price Reduction", etc. are not permitted.
- Neither exhibit space nor this contract can be transferred or assigned to another.
- Booth space may not be shared without the approval of Show Management.
- Pets are not permitted on show premises at any time.

INDEMNIFICATION:

Exhibitor agrees that in consideration for the above mentioned space, exhibitor, in their individual capacity, shall indemnify and hold harmless Show Management, World Wide Antique Shows, and the Denver Merchandise Mart against all demands, claims, actions, losses, liabilities, damages, expenses, costs and reasonable attorney's fees, which they may incur as a result of intentional negligence or acts of omission of exhibitors. Further, it is agreed by exhibitor that s/he will defend and release Show Management and the Denver Merchandise Mart from all claims, demands or liabilities for any loss, injury or damage to his/her person and/or property.

CANCELLATION OF ENTIRE SHOW:

In the event that the Denver Merchandise Mart Exposition Building becomes unavailable or inaccessible due to acts of God, strikes, work stoppage, fire or any other cause not within the control of Show Management, then exhibitor releases Show Management from all claims which may arise in consequence thereof. In such event, Show Management shall refund to exhibitor his/her pro-rated share of the total amount paid by all exhibitors less costs and expenses incurred by Show Management in connection with the show.
